Offline Marketing Materials

Posters and digital displays.

Make them bright and eye-catching with clear CTAs.

Business-sized promotional cards.

Hand these out at the desk or staple them to receipts.

Table talkers and printed adverts.

Use area guides or adverts at the back of your menus.

On-hold messages.

Never miss an opportunity to encourage voucher sales.

Posters

- Add a frame
- Place on the reception desk
- Put up in the ladies' bathroom

A simple announcement is sometimes enough to make an impression and lead to a sale – see our blog post about The Baader-Meinhoff Phenomenon.

GET HER MORE THAN FLOWERS

GIFT VOUCHERS AVAILABLE ONLINE

Digital Displays

Ipads.

Allow guests to interact with and browse your online gift voucher shop.

TV screens.

Keep your vouchers in the mind of your guests by displaying information about them.

Front desk PPTs.

Show guests how to find your gift vouchers, should they wish to after their visit.

On-hold message

'Thank you for calling. Please leave a message ...

*...and if you're looking for a unique gift this year,
why not treat friends and family to a gift voucher
for our hotel/restaurant?*

Available to buy directly from our website at www.ourbusiness.co.uk.'

Printed flyers

The same gift voucher graphics can be used in different situations, from small flyers to larger adverts. Place a few where guests will pick them up.

Online

- Regular client e-newsletters and targeted e-shots prior to key sales dates.
- Frequent social media posts mentioning your vouchers. Paid ads if possible. Always link back to your voucher shop.
- Email signatures with clickable links begin a smooth purchase journey for your customers.
- Website pop-ups, image boxes and blog posts alert new, interested customers to the fact that you sell gift vouchers.
